A brief comment on this unprecedented time in our lives...

COVID 19 has not only impacted our daily lives, it has impacted the global economy. As we work through this, our hearts and prayers go out to those around the world severely impacted by this virus.

It will take time.

Our firm is still actively at work and our goal is to provide service to our clients with minimal disruption. We will have access to email and can remotely check for mail and voicemail messages as well as video conferencing if needed.

You can reach Securian Financial or Minnesota Life directly by dialing: 1-888-237-1838 and following the prompts.

While it's difficult to forecast where events will lead, we will be sure to protect our team and their families. Many of us are working remotely now and soon enough we might have to close our offices for a period of time.

Please check back regularly for updates.

Be well,
